

good for writing
 as shown by former it has been allowed of it is aware
 11 07

+son
 [Faint handwritten text, mostly illegible due to damage]

[Extensive handwritten text, including a list of entries with numerical values, possibly a ledger or account book. The text is very faint and difficult to decipher.]

William Wignill & Robert Dolbrook Account Baylyst of the year for the year of our Lord 1652

1st of June 1653

That Thomas Starwood

appears at their allowance upon the account herein written for the Borough rent thereof paid of it the sum of 01 6 03 & am to be allowed for tabernacle of 01 2 06 for their 2 1 2 20 to be added to the sum herein named.

Beside

20s from St John George } 0 0 3
 for his fee } 0 0 5 - 0
 And 20s from John Halson Churchwarden } - 0 0 8 00 the remainder of his account

Upon our examining this account we do find that there remains for the said Baylyst Land the sum of - 00 05 11

Beside that it is shilling which we do allow against for writing the account being the 10d expended for that book which was not paid to so the full sum of what said Baylyst account is - 01 whereas the Willings paid 9s - 0

