

1580

Alidit vms. p. p. stated nos Johem Pale de Westmyster in cond Dors Belfomder et Georgium Pale de Westmyster in cond Dors Belfomder teneri et firmiter obligari Willmo Westmyster yendor Thome Sampson Johi Whyker et Johi Wythell in scem libris et legio monete Anglie solvend eidem Willmo Thome Johi et J vel suo refo ditoribus vel assignat suis ad quam quidem solucionem bene et fideliter facienda obligamus nos et utrumq in m p p. toto et in solidu heredes executoris et administratoris nos et in solidu in m firmiter p. p. stated in tunc rei testimoniu p. p. stated sigilla xma apposimus Dat Westm. die maij Anno regni Sue. marie Elizabeth Dei grat Anglie Francie et Hibnie regine fidei defensoris et Vicesimo secundo

The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas the abovesaiden John Pale and George Pale for and in consideration of a certain sum of money unto them already paid and have melted made and new cast one Bell now hanging in the tower of the city of Colton in the county of Devon and in cast the same Bell at any time hereafter on this side the feaste of Ester next ensuynge after the date of this obligation abovesayden shall happen by any way or otherwise by reason of the default in workmanship or of the same to beake or to be broken or to be broken or farre that then if they the abovesaiden John Pale and George or one of them or the executor or assignee of one of them shall upon request unto him or them to be made at his theme or one of them shone to be and thardge new cast and new make the same Bell and hange the same againe in to the said tower in such sorte and order as the said Bell shall be more to be and shall abide firm and agreeynge wth the residue of the Bells in the said tower by the state of one yere then nexte followinge that then this obligation to be void and of none effect. or to be to stande remaine and be in his full power strength and vertue.

III

By me George Pale

Witness shall be delivered the day of the abovesayden in the presence of us

Matt. Gifford

of the part of John Pale of the part of George Pale

