Remarks

In danger of being spoiled by too much commendation see below. Has profited by his opportunities in the school. Careless. Wants more attention. Gladly reported by Mr Pady & Dr. Kingston also (see page)

Does not read so well as some of the smaller boys Reads better than any boy in the school. Does not shine & attends to punctuation

Excels in reading Not belonging to the Parish is to remain only till fresh applications are made having lately fallen; and far beyond many of his larger school fellows.

Reading careless & blotty. Arithmetic better than writing. Reads fairly Not present at this examination. Greatly absent from the school.

A sharp lad Taken into the school in old to fill the place of his brother who had left.

A nice boy This lad stammers & his reading cannot be good Reads admirably

Has been in before but is this day dismissed till further applications are made

Remarks

In starting to explain this boy, does not make any progress in spelling though improved in reading, still reads only indifferently. Reading & Writing better than reads.

One of the best boys in the school. Continues his superiority. Absent two days during the last month. His mother's fault. Writes a bold clear hand.

Absent from this examination. Writes a cramped hand. Reads much better than he writes, during the past month has been good.

Writing blotchy

Kept home day & half by his mother last week. Stammers in reading & cannot do well. Absent 2 days last week.

Has been re-admitted. Absent half a day.

Has been readmitted for a season.

Readmitted to the school after 4 years' absence.
