Dear Sir,
In reply to your letter of May 9th last I am directed by the Feoffees to say:

- (1) The Chamber now consists of 18 Members of which number 4 are Feoffees, and the remainder of the body named 'Twenty men'
- (2) It has been the custom to appoint Freeholders on this Body, 6 new Members were lately elected being Freeholders of whom 3 were and still are Members of the Parish Council viz: The Vicar of the Parish (Rev: R Turner) The Chairman of the Parish Council (Mr E H. Cuming) The Vice-Chairman (Mr J. Follett)
- (3) The Chamber beg to point out that they have at their disposal a considerable sum of money to be expended in charitable purposes and venture to suggest that if persons elected by the popular vote be appointed there is danger of a misapplication of such Charity.
- (4) The Accounts of the Chamber for the past year have been laid before the Parishioners.
