Attending Mr. Stokes your Bailiff upon the resolution of the Chamber that I be instructed to take the necessary steps for recovering the rent due from Mr. Palmer the tenant of Lovehayne & Buddlehayes at Michaelmas last when on enquiry I ascertained that the Chamber had been reconstituted since the farm was let and I said I could not safely advise without seeing the deed of appointment as in all probability the legal Estate had been interfered with and he requested me to write him a letter which he could submit

Letter accordingly

25 Mr. Eyre 1 John Street Bedford Row having written that it had been intimated to him by a member of the Chamber that I had offered an opinion that the deed prepared by him had not been properly drawn letter in reply that I had not done anything of the kind but had declined the
