MEMORANDUM.

From EDWARD BARTLETT,
COAL & GENERAL MERCHANT,
COLYTON.

To Mr Higgins
for Colyton Feoffees
April 16th - 1869.

DEPOTS, Colyton Junction, Colyton Town, and Seaton Stations.

Dear Sir. — I find the Rent I am now paying for the Market Tolls &c a great deal too much — especially since the establishment of ~~weekly~~ sales by Auction in Westminster & Honiton Markets and I apply for its reduction to the original sum — namely — Five pounds per Annum.

I also beg attention to the state of the Iron Walling and the Market generally

I shall also feel oblig'd for information as to the period of the year the Feoffees consider my Tenancy to have commenced

Yours faithfully,
E Bartlett
