Dear Sir

Please do not forget the maps - the new & old one - also the Navit map.

I think it would be desirable for you to call on Mr J. B. Kettle & ask him if he objects to the proceedings I do not suppose he will sign the authority but he may not like to object for the mere sake of giving his brother what he knows does not belong to him So as you can see Mr H. D. Knigdon's authority either verbal or written,

Yours

Dear Sir

Mr Every obtained yesterday an order for us to file an affidavit of all the documents we have in our possession to be made before 12. O.
I think with you make out a list of those you have & let me have it this evening.

I think the documents which consist of the Charter; the Rent Book & Minute Book - I do not know what other documents you have - Could you possibly send over by the 5 O Train & we might go thro' the list I also obtained an order for Mr Kille to file an affidavit of his documents - I find

They are going to try & show we have authority to sue - therefore I think it will be very desirable to get an <sup>signed</sup> authority of the Feoffees or as many of them as you can & for this purpose I enclose a form of authority

Yours truly

W. Albert Edwards Esq. Sued

Dear Sir,

Jefferies v. Hille

I send you a copy of the Judge's decision in this Case. I am not yet convinced that the Judge's view is right.
I think the best plan will be to lay the written Judgment before Council and have his Opinion -

According to the Judge's ruling we must give notice to the representative of Mr. Long to determine the tenancy created by reason of his paying rent.
After getting Council's opinion it may be desirable that I should write to Mr. Long and ask him whether, having regard to the Indespinion that the Peffer had established their title to the property - his cheint would further contest the technical point as to the right of possession.

Yours truly
G. S. Dood

Dear Sir

The Froppie Committee are quite willing you should see the Parish Minute Book for 1849 if you obtain the consent of the Parish Authorities in whom the Charge of it is vested.

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

The Vestry Minute Book is the property of the parish & I can find no authority for a parishioner to copy it without the consent of the Churchwardens & Overseers.

Dear Sir

Colyton Tesser = Kettle.

Mr Every has written again for these cuts & he the terms to issue execution. He admits that 7/6 must be deducted from above. You had better pay the cuts into Court less the charges you speak to,
The Registrar will accept what you choose to pay in.

It has occurred to me

be a special one.

Dear Sir,

I enclose the notices to be served.

I think it will be better to serve Mr Clarke as well as Mrs Clarke in case any question arises as to the payment of rent by her.

You had better have an Resolution of the Feoffees, if possible, to serve this letter

I beg to enclose papers

Also to acknowledge receipt of cheque for £2. 4. 6, as the case has given Mr.
