

Manor of Ottery

Saint Mary

in the County of Devon

The special Court Baron of the said Manor there hold for the Right honorable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntze Barons Lords thereof on Thursday the twenty fifth Day of October in the thirty third year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the faith and so forth and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety two by and before Beavis Wood gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor

At this Court

came Edward Holwell Great Great Grandson and customary Heir of John Holwell late of Colyton in the said County of Devon Yeoman who died many years ago seized to him and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor of and in One Messuage and Eight Acres of Land with the Appurtenances situate lying and being within the parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid of the Tenure of Old Barton under the yearly Rent of three Shillings And the said Edward Holwell being present in Court and desiring his Admission to the said premises with the Appurtenances he in the presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris two customary Tenants of the said Manor took the same from the Hands of the said Lords by the Delivery of the said Beavis Wood one of the Stewards of the said Manor To have and to hold the said premises with the Appurtenances unto the said Edward Holwell and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the yearly Rent of three Shillings and by and under all other Burthens Services Customs Suits and Services therefore anciently due and of Right accustomed And the said Edward Holwell gives to the said Lords for a fine of Income on his Admission to the said premises three Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor and so he is admitted Tenant and to the said Lords hath done his Fealty Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and year aforesaid.

Beavis Wood Stew.

James G. Gurney

James G. Gurney

James G. Gurney

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Manor of Ottery St. Mary - Devon.

25. Oct. 1792

Mr. Tho. Holwell - Admission.

8 acres 7/8d3

Manor of Ottery
Saint Mary
in the County of Devon.

The Special Court Baron of the said Manor there held for the Right Honourable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntze
Baronets Lords thereof on Thursday the Twentieth fifth Day of October in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord
George the Third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the Faith and so forth and in the Year of our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and Ninety two By and before Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor.

At this Court came Edward Holwell late of Colyton in the said County of Devon Esquire who now holds of the Lords of the Manor aforesaid to him and his Heirs according to the Custom of the said Manor All that one Messuage and Eight Acres of Land with the Appurtenances Situate lying and being within the Parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid of the Tenure of Old Barton under the yearly Rent of Three Shillings And the said Edward Holwell in his own proper person in the Presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris Two Customary Tenants of the said Manor Surrendered into the hands of the said Lords of the said Manor the said one Messuage and Eight Acres of Land with the Appurtenances To the sole and proper Use of Samuel Palmer of Colyton aforesaid Gentleman and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor Whereupon there became due to the Lords of the said Manor for a Relief Three Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor And Whereupon at this same Court came the said Samuel Palmer and desiring his Admission to the said Premises with the Appurtenances He (in the Presence of the said Customary Tenants) took the same from the hands of the said Lords by the Delivery of Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards thereof To Have and To Hold the said Premises with the Appurtenances unto the said Samuel Palmer and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the said yearly Rent of Three Shillings and all other Burthens Heriots Customs Suits and Services therefor Anciently due and of Right accustomed And the said
Samuel Palmer gives to the said Lords for a Relief on his Admission to the said Premises Three Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor And so is admitted Tenant thereof but his Fealty is respited. — Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and Year aforesaid. —

Beavis Wood Show.

Manor of Ottery S. Mary Devon.
25. Oct. 1792.

Mr. G. Holwell
to
Mr. S. Palmer } Siender.

7/8d4

Manor of Ottery S. Mary Devon.

25. Oct. 1792

Mr. E. Holwell

to

Mr. J. Palmer

Surrender.

7/6d

Manor of Ottery
Saint Mary
in the County of Devon

The special Court Barrow of the said Manor there held for the Right honorable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntys Barons & Lords thereof on Thursday the twenty fifth Day of October in the thirty third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the faith and so forth and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Ninety two By and before Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor

At this Court came Edward Holwell of Colyton in the said County of Devon Yeoman who now holds of the Manor aforesaid to him and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor all that one Messuage and one Acre of Land lying at Epshill foot within the parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid <sup>the Manor of</sup> Old Barton under the yearly Rent of Seven Shillings And the said Edward Holwell in his own proper person (in the presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris two customary Tenants of the said Manor) surrendered into the Hands of the said Lords of the said Manor the said one Messuage and one Acre of Land with the appurtenances to the sole and proper Use of Samuel Palmer of Colyton aforesaid Gentleman and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor Whereupon there became due to the said Lords of the said Manor for a Relief Seven Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor And Thereupon at this same Court came the said Samuel Palmer and desiring his Admission to the said premises with the appurtenances He (in the presence of the said customary Tenants) took the same from the hands of the Lords of the said Manor by the Delivery of the said Beavis Wood one of the Stewards thereof To have and to hold the said premises with the appurtenances unto the said Samuel Palmer and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the said yearly Rent of Seven Shillings and all other Burthens Heriots Customs Suits and Services therefore anciently due and of Right accustomed And the said Samuel Palmer gives to the said Lords for a Relief on his Admission to the said premises Seven Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor and so is admitted Tenant thereof but his Fealty is respited Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and Year aforesaid.

Beavis Wood Shew.

Manor of Ottery
Saint Mary
in the County of Devon

The special Court Baron of the said Manor there hold for the Right honorable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntze Barons & Lords thereof on Thursday the twenty fifth Day of October in the thirty third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the Faith and so forth and in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Ninety two by and before Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor.

At this Court came Edward Holwell late of Colyton in the said County of Devon Yeoman who now holds of the Lords of the Manor aforesaid to him and his Heirs according to the Custom of the said Manor all those two acres of Land lying at Alplington within the parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid of the Tenure of Old Barton under the yearly Rent of Eight pence and the said Edward Holwell in his own proper person in the presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris two Customary Tenants of the said Manor surrendered into the Hands of the said Lords of the said Manor the said two acres of Land with their Appurtenances to the sole and proper Use of Samuel Palmer of Colyton aforesaid Gentleman and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor. Whereupon there became due to the Lords of the said Manor <sup>for a Relief</sup> Eight pence according to the Custom of the said Manor. And Thereupon at this same Court came the said Samuel Palmer and desiring his Admission to the said premises with the Appurtenances He (in the presence of the said Customary Tenants) took the same from the Hands of the said Lords by the Delivery of Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards thereof To have and to hold the said premises with the Appurtenances unto the said Samuel Palmer and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the said yearly Rent of Eight pence and all other Burthens Heriots Customs Suits and Services therofore anciently due and of Right accustomed and the said Samuel Palmer gives to the said Lords for a Relief on his Admission to the said premises Eight pence according to the Custom of the said Manor and so he is admitted Tenant thereof but his Fealty is respited. — Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and Year aforesaid. —

Beavis Wood Stew.

Faint, illegible handwriting, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.

*Manor of Ottery S. Mary Devon.
25. Oct. 1792.*

*Mr. E. Holwell
to
Mr. J. Palmer.*

Surrender: —

7/8d5

Faint, illegible handwriting, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.

Manor of Ottery
Saint Mary
in the County of Devon

The special Court Baron of the said Manor there hold for the Right honorable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntze Barons of the said Manor on Thursday the twenty fifth Day of October in the thirty third year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the faith and so forth and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Ninety two by and before Beavis Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor

All this Court came Edward Holwell Great great Grandson and customary Heir of John Holwell late of Colyton in the said County of Devon Yeoman who died many years ago seized to him and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor of and in One Messuage and one Acre of Land lying at Siphill foot within the parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid of the Tenure of Old Barton under the yearly Rent of Seven Shillings And the said Edward Holwell being present in Court and desiring his Admission to the said premises with the Appurtenances He in the presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris two customary Tenants of the said Manor took the same from the Hands of the said Lords by the Delivery of the said Beavis Wood one of the Stewards of the said Manor To have and to hold the said premises with the Appurtenances unto the said Edward Holwell and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the yearly Rent of Seven Shillings and by and under all other Burthens Heriots Customs Suits and Services therefore anciently due and of Right accustomed And the said Edward Holwell gave to the said Lords for a fine of Income on his Admission to the said premises Seven Shillings according to the Custom of the said Manor and so he is admitted Tenant and to the said Lords hath done his Fealty. — Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and Year aforesaid. —

Beavis Wood. Stew.

2

Manor of Ultery, St. Mary - Down

25. Oct. 1792.

Wm. Chas. Holwell - Admision.

1 dnt
7/8d2

Manor of Ultery, St. Mary - Down

25. Oct. 1792.

Wm. Chas. Holwell - Admision.

1 dnt

7/8d2

Wm. Chas. Holwell

Manor of Ottery

Saint Mary

in the County of Down

The special Court Baron of the said Manor there hold for the Right honorable Sir George Yonge and Sir John Duntage Baronets Lords thereof on Thursday the twenty fifth Day of October in the thirty third year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the faith and so forth and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety two by and before Isaac Wood Gentleman one of the Stewards of the said Manor

At this Court

came Edward Holwell great great grandson and Customary Heir of John Holwell late of Colyton in the said County of Down Yeoman who died many years ago seized to him and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor of and in two Acres of Land lying at Alphington within the parish and Manor of Ottery Saint Mary aforesaid of the Tenure of Old Barton under the yearly Rent of Eight pence And the said Edward Holwell being present in Court and desiring his Admission to the said premises with the appurtenances He in the presence of Richard Seaward and Nicholas Harris two customary Tenants of the said Manor took the same from the Hands of the said Lords by the Delivery of the said Isaac Wood one of the Stewards of the said Manor To have and to hold the said premises with the appurtenances unto the said Edward Holwell and his Heirs forever according to the Custom of the said Manor by and under the yearly Rent of Eight pence and by and under all other Burthens Herriots Customs Suits and Services theretore anciently due and of right accustomed And the said Edward Holwell gave to the said Lords for a fine of Income on his Admission to the said premises Eight pence according to the Custom of the said Manor and so he is admitted Tenant and to the said Lords hath done his Fealty. Given as a Copy of Court Roll of the said Manor the Day and Year aforesaid.

Isaac Wood. Stew.

Manor of Ottery St. Mary - Devon.

25. Oct. 1792.

Mr. Edw. Holwell. - Admissions.

2 Acres

108/8